Louvered Panels

METABIN polypropylene containers are the ideal solution for the economic, high-density storage of small items. Identification of the contents of each bin is made easy with particularly large label holders whilst the micro-gloss finish adds style to the five attractive colours.

Metabins are moulded from a high grade, re-recyclable, co-polymer polypropylene, which is resistant to oils and most acid and alkaline solutions.

The profiled shelf tab on the rear edge means Metabins can be safely used on shelves as an alternative to self stacking or being supported on the louvered panel system.

Louvered back panels and frames make optimum use of the available storage capacity when used in conjunction with QBS shelving.

Metabins can be used with QBS steel shelving. The profiled tab prevents the container from being accidentally pulled off the shelf.

Hospitals, factories, museums, retail areas, in fact any small parts storage environment will benefit when kitted out with the Metabin range of containers and louvered panels.
